2012 KSU Merit Badge Conference
& 2012 Target First Class Program
April 28, 2012; 8 am – 5 pm

1. Qualifications: Rank as of January 1, 2012
 - a. If First Class, you may register for Eagle-required merit badge classes (First Aid & Citizenship in the Community, Nation, and World) or other merit badge classes.
 - b. If Second Class, you may register for all merit badges except the Eagle-required (listed above); you may also request to be in the Target First Class program but you cannot register for both (must choose MBC or TFC)
 - c. If a Scout or Tenderfoot, you may register for the Target First Class program but you may not register for merit badges.

2. Registration for merit badge classes
 - a. From the list on KSU MBC Appendix 7, select your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices for the AM session; then select your 1st, 2nd, and 3rd choices for the PM sessions.
 - b. Do not list a single merit badge class for both morning and afternoon sessions; even if it is offered twice.
 - c. Enter the abbreviation codes for the merit badge in the table below.

3. Registration for Target First Class program: Enter your name and rank below and mark Target First Class. Scouts will need to bring a pencil, paper, water bottle and compass. The activities will develop new scouting skills for some scouts; or will be a chance to review and improve skills for other scouts.

4. The registration fee for the Merit Badge Conference and for Target First Class is the same; $22 per scout which includes lunch and a patch.
